

DCDP Central Committee Members 25 Suggestions for Helping Your Local Party

Be an Active Committee Member

- Attend Central Committee meetings regularly and support fellow CC members
- Inform people in your precinct of voting responsibilities
- Help those who need to become registered to vote
- Help new residents of your precinct update their registration
- Help identify poll-workers as needed for your Precinct
- Talk positively about our local party and candidates for local offices

Support Democratic Candidates and Campaigns

- Vote in every election (as a Democrat, of course) and encourage others to do the same
- Circulate petitions in your precinct for Democratic candidates and progressive issues
- Help candidates find good locations for yard signs in your precinct
- Walk your precinct with a friend or with candidates to distribute campaign materials
- Get to know a local candidate so you can effectively “campaign” for her/him
- Host a house party/coffee reception for a candidate
- Help GOTV! (Get out the Vote)

Participate in Local Democratic Party Activities

- Help the Party collect and maintain accurate contact information for your Precinct members
- Volunteer to help with special events and activities
- Take part in Democratic workshops and conferences that interest you
- Attend fundraisers sponsored by the Democratic party
- Contribute financially when you can, and encourage others to do so
- Wear buttons, bumper stickers, and Democratic t-shirts that express pride in being progressive

Interact with your Neighborhood

- Connect with your precinct constituents and be a recognized resource for voting & candidate information
- Host “Blue Block” gatherings to network with fellow Democrats
- Organize a Facebook group for your precinct
- Use your personal network to identify and promote future candidates or new political contributors
- Organize petition drives
- Encourage others to join our local party
