May-June 2019 Delaware County Democratic Party Newsletter Vol 2, No 2

A Word from the Pub

I don't usually get to talk about our newsletter, but just a quick heads-up on what you'll find in this edition which is packed with lots of pertinent information about candidates, the Party, fellow DelaDems, state & local politics, and upcoming events. Also wanted to give a shout-out to those who work hard to bring you this information.

- This issue will kick off our Candidate Spotlight which will run up to the November elections. Heather Karr is our premier Spotlighter. She is running for Powell City Council, and just made a big splash at the Powell Memorial Day parade.
- Next is a piece about a special political discussion group that emerged after the 2016 election. Read about the people who started it, how it addresses important political issues, and the group members who make it work. Mindy Hedges and Marian Jacques combined efforts to help pull this together.
- In our Member Spotlight for this issue, you'll hear from Amy and Mark White-Predieri. Thanks to Mindy Hedges for regularly reaching out to our constituents and making this a popular feature with our readers.
- In a new feature, DelaDem Newsmakers, we asked Mary Kate Pembroke and David Carpenter to talk about their recent experiences testifying at the statehouse and to provide some insight into the preparation and process of testifying.
- Next is DelaDems in the News, our usual list of DelaDems who appeared in local media either writing letters, being quoted, or captured on video.

- Take a look at our growing list of candidates for the November elections, and learn about upcoming candidate training and how to get your name on the ballot.
- Scholarships awarded! We are pleased to announce the talented and special Delaware County students who were awarded the annual Parker Scholarship award.
- Updates from Ohio Democratic Party. ODP passed a resolution calling for same-day and automatic voter registration. ODP also announced its "Summer of Action" program to register voters and increase volunteer capacity, see details below.
- Our final feature is the Legislative Watch, which is a culled list and short description of key pieces of legislation working their way through the Ohio Statehouse. Marian Jacques is responsible for editing and assembling this list for us.
- Make sure to check out the upcoming local events. Take a look at our photo gallery with images of some recent DelaDem events. And read the minutes of the latest Monthly Meeting.
- And a special thanks to Bertie Dell and Chair Peg Watkins for advising on stories, checking copy, and of course making sure punctuation goes where it's supposed to.

From the Ohio Democratic Party

Therefore, be it resolved: The Ohio Democratic Party's Executive Committee passed a resolution to support protection of Ohio voters and expand access to the ballot (former DCDP Chair Ed Helvey sits on the ODP Executive Committee.) The resolution called for automatic voter registration and same day registration, and to restore voters who were wrongly purged under previous court rulings. The ODP reaffirms its commitment to the fundamental freedom of voting, and to making sure voting is free, fair, and accessible for every qualified voter.

Summer of Action: The Ohio Democratic Party launched its "Summer of Action" campaign this week with a fellowship program to register new voters, build volunteer capacity and push back on the president's failed policies that are hurting the people of the Buckeye State. "We're proud to be training Ohio's next generation of progressive organizers as part of our 88-county strategy, which is designed to engage Democratic voters in every corner of the Buckeye State," said Ohio Democratic Party Chairman David Pepper. "This Summer of Action campaign will expand on our work to register new voters, empower local activists to build community action teams, use the latest digital tools to reach voters where they are and persuade Ohioans who have been hurt by Donald Trump's broken promises."
